On May 16 the clothing pressmen of New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Baltimore, Boston and other large cities will demand an advance in wages and reduction in hours of labor from ten to nine hours per day. In New York the men will demand an advance of 25 per cent; the Boston pressmen will ask for a 15 per cent increase, and in other cities the advance demanded will range from 15 to 25 per cent.

After consultation among the lumbermen they decided to accede to the demand of the men and the latter resumed work.
CHICAGO, May 3.—There is a strong probability that the trouble between the master painters and journeymen will be shortly settied. So far seventy-five of the most promi-nent firms have signed the agreement for an eight-hour day and a minimum price of 32½ cents an hour, the compact to last until April 1, 1893.

He did not arrive, or if he did has managed to make himself invisible to the physical vision. Negro Posts. NEW ORLEANS, May 3.-Ever since Post Department Commander Jacob Gray of the G. A. A decision was had since, the commander-in-chief recognizing these negro posts, but Deputy Commander Frederick Speed refused to inspect them or recognize them in any way. He was warned that serious consequences might ensue, but his comrades indorsed his course and de-cided to suck to it.

A lengthy petition was prepared and for-warded to the national commander, Gen. Pal-mer of New York. The colored posts also got mer of New tork. Dover dispatches say the governor forwarded the commission to Mr. Wolcott this morning and that Mr. Wolcott is considering and is beleved will accept the same.

Jas. Wolcott was born near Harrington, Del., in 1842. He worked on his father's farm until he attained his majority, when he went to Dover, read law under Eli Saulsbury and was admitted to the bar in 1866. He rapidly came into prominence professionally and politically. He was clerk of the state senate in 1867, counsel for the Kent county levy court from 1871 to 1879, accretary of state from 1879 to 1883 and contestant for the United States senatorship against his preceptor in 1888. Australian Champion. CHICAGO, May 3.- Champion Oarsman Wm.

Conner and ex-Champion Ned Hanlan are in the city. Fred Mossop, who at times has backed both men, is also here. O'Conner was considerably elated when he heard that Stansbury had defended in the centennial celebration in Puget S. his title to the sculling championship successfully, as the latter has promised to at once sail for this country and meet the Canadian for $2,500 a side and the world's cham-pionship. He maintains that he can defeat Stansbury on any course in America. If he and the Australian meet the race may serve to revive interest in a sport practically dead.

WANTS ANNEXATION. The Hawaltan Islands Tired of Being ar

for this have been frequently told. I can only add that after forty years spent in Honolulu I know that these reasons are well grounded. The natives want a republic. The queen, however, will hold the throne until death removes her from it. The vast body of American residents are anxious for annexation, no matter what its opponents may say. The United States is nearer to us than any other country, and her interests in the islands is greater than that of any other, but if she refuses us merely because annexation would necessitate expenditures for fortifications when in reality these fortifications on the Pacific are England, France or Germany.'

Inflammatory Articles. LONDON, May 3. - At the Old Bailey the grand jury have brought true bills against Mowbray, publisher, and Nicholis, editor, of the anarchist newspaper, the Commonweal, seized last week by the police. The charges against them are based on arti-

The suppression of the paper at the time it was effected was most fortunate, as it prevented the issue of a dangerously inflammatory number which was to have been issued on May doings. It in fact completely broke up the conspiracy of the anarchists, so that they were able to make no show whatever last Sunday. able to make no show whatever last Sunday.
Of the men today indicted an example is sought to be made which will put a final extinguisher on a species of plotting so foreign and averse to the spirit of the British people.

EARLDOM OF STAMFORD.

An Important Decision Made by the House LONDON, May 8 .- A case involving the legal succession to the Earldom of Stamford, which has been before the house of lords for some time, was decided today in favor of the present earl, the ninth holder of the title.

The eighth earl who died in June, 1890, left a son, whose mother was a negress of Cape Colony. The earl married the negress, but this son was born prior to the marriage. The house of lords' decision declares that this son is illegitimate and therefore has no claim on the title. The son made no contest to establish his legitimacy.
